6.45pm	Registration
7.00pm	Diversifying with Corporate Bonds Elizabeth Moran
Holding corporate bonds in your investment portfolio is a great way to provide diversity. They can offer a reliable income stream and allow you to invest in the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Australian Companies at a lower risk than with equities • Australian companies not listed on the ASX • International Companies that issue bonds in Australian dollars • Foreign currency bonds. The developing high yield market can also offer equity like returns. You will be surprised by the range and opportunities available in the bond market. Liz will also discuss the term deposit market and look at the market's expectations for interest rates.
Elizabeth Moran Director – Education and Research FIIG Elizabeth is considered an expert in the fixed income asset class and is a regular contributor to The Australian and Morningstar. She frequently writes for and is quoted in other press. Elizabeth has been with FIIG for seven years and for much of that time has been a corporate and bank analyst. In recent years her passion for education has seen her role shift, to author/ edit FIIG's "The Australian Guide to Fixed Income" and an online fixed income course for Financial Advisors. She continues to edit FIIG's weekly newsletter, "The WIRE". In her role as Director of Education, Elizabeth has delivered presentations at conferences across Australia including Morningstar, Eureka Report, Australian Investors Association and the ASX. Prior to joining FIIG, Elizabeth worked as an Editor/Analyst for Rapid Ratings, writing daily press releases for Bloomberg. Elizabeth spent five years in London, three working as a credit rating analyst for NatWest Markets. After graduating with a Bachelor of Business, Elizabeth joined State Bank Victoria/Commonwealth Bank, where she held management roles in communication and trained in corporate credit analysis.
