7.00pm	Registration
7.30pm	Macro outlook for 2019: What to expect from investment markets John Abernethy
Higher bond yields, US/China trade, the blowout in US budget, the slowing of QE across the world are among the significant issues that will confront self-directed investors in 2019. John will outline his thoughts for these and a range of issues that will confront investment markets in 2019. From this he will draw conclusions on asset allocation to meet the needs of superannuation funds – both accumulation and pension stage.
John Abernethy: Director Clime Asset Management John is the founder of Clime Investment Management Limited and has over 25 years experience in funds management. Prior to establishing Clime, John's roles included ten years at NRMA Investments as the head of equities, where he successfully managed investment portfolios totalling $2 billion. John founded Clime (formerly Loftus Capital Partners) in 1996. Through Loftus Capital partners, he advised high net worth individuals on their investments and managed portfolios on their behalf.
