7.00pm	Registration
7.30pm	Peer to Peer Lending: The new class of assets for Australian Investors Andrew Jones
Peer-to-peer or market place lending has opened up a new class of assets to Australian investors. Until now consumer credit has only been available to the large banks or wholesale investors. P2P lending has now become quite established in Australia with several large platforms. Andrew Jones will give an overview of the industry, the different platforms and the risks of investing.
Andrew Jones – RateSetter, Head of Commercial Development Andrew has over 23 years' experience in financial services.
